MUNICIPAL ORDINANCES, RULES, AND REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO PUBLIC HEALTH.

NORTH HEMPSTEAD, N. Y.

Nuisances—Certain Conditions Declared to be. (Reg. Bd. of H., June 18, 1912.)

SECTION 1. Whatsoever is dangerous or injurious to human life or health; whatever building or part, or cellar thereof, is overcrowded or not provided with adequate means of ingress or egress, or is not sufficiently supported, ventilated, drained, lighted, or cleaned, and whatsoever renders soil, air, water, or food impure or unwholesome, are declared to be nuisances and to be illegal; and every person having aided in creating or distributing to the same or who may support, continue, or retain any of them, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this ordinance, and shall also be liable for the expense of the abatement or remedy required.

Privies and Cesspools—Construction and Maintenance—Removal of Contents. (Reg. Bd. of H., June 18, 1912.)

SEC. 2. No privy pit, cesspool, or reservoir into which any privy, water-closet, stable, sink, or other receptacle of refuse or sewerage is drained shall be constructed or maintained in any situation or in any manner whereby, through leakage or overflow of its contents, it may cause pollution of the soil near or about habitations, or any well, spring, or other source of water used for drinking or culinary purposes; nor shall the overflow from any such reservoir or receptacle be permitted to discharge into any public place or in anywise whereby danger to health may be caused. And every such pit, reservoir, or receptacle shall be cleaned and the contents thereof removed at such times and under such precautions as the board of health may prescribe. Violations of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall subject the offending party to a penalty of $1 for each day's continuance of the nuisance after due notice to abate it from an authorized officer.

Stables and Disposal of Manure. (Reg. Bd. of H., June 18, 1912.)

SEC. 3. All stables, barns, and other places wherein horses or cattle are kept shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition. All accumulations of manure shall be stored in such places and be removed with such frequency and in such manner as to prevent offensive or noxious odors. No piles of manure shall be allowed to accumulate in any position or manner whereby they shall become breeding places of flies or whereby any leachings therefrom may pass into any stream or watercourse. Any violation of this ordinance shall subject the offending party to a penalty of $1 for each offense and for each day's continuance or repetition of the offense after due notice to abate it from an authorized officer.
